STATUS REPORT

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On January 25, 2006, the offender was began his 60 month term of probation. The offender was transferred to our low intensity caseload on January 10, 2007. On March 24, 2011, Mr. Bell appeared before Your Honor for violation of probation hearing and his term of supervision was revoked for failing to pay his restitution. He was sentenced to one day of custody to be followed by one year of supervised release. In May 2011, the offender's case was transferred to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Bell currently resides in Philadelphia, PA. The offender is currently employed full time with Aerotek Staffing performing quality control. The U.S. Probation Office in Eastern District of Pennsylvania advised that the offender has maintained compliance with his monthly restitution payments, but it is anticipated that a restitution balance will remain outstanding at his supervision termination date of March 30, 2012. To date, he has paid $8,750 towards his obligation. It should be noted that should his term of supervision expire as scheduled, his case will be referred to the U.S. Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit for collection.

Recommendation: It is respectfully requested that Your Honor take no further action and allow Mr. Bell's term of supervision to expire as scheduled on March 30, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia C. Jensen
